KRESGE EMPLOYES HOLD WEINER ROAST.

Those, who for various reasons, were unable to attend the Weiner Roast which was held at Glenn Echo on October 1st, surely missed a good time. The weather and the place chosen for our little party were ideal and with Mr. Janton and Fellie to build the fire and find sticks for the girls it was not long before we were all seated around the huge blaze roasting weiners. ----- Pickles, baked beans, cider, limburger cheese and marshmallows were in abundance and with such eats as these, no one could remain hungry long.

After our repast, the evening was spent in singing and playing such games as London Bridge and Farmer's in the Dell. Mr. and Mrs. Mesner were there, it being the first Weiner Roast they had ever attended. However, Weiner Roasts are common occurrences around Columbus and I think we will all agree are very good sport. We trust that this is only the beginning of the many good times we expect to have together this winter.

What is the shortest month of the year?
March, because the wind blows at least four days out of each week.

-----
Picnicer -- Is this the weather beaurear? How about a shower tonight?
Weather man - Don't ask me. If you need one, take it.

-----
The girls in the Veiling Department suggest that they be permitted to display Hair Nets on their counter in order that they may help their customers to distinguish between Hair Nets and Elastic Veils. Miss Corinne Dierker suggests the following Notices which she believes may be of some benefit in case they are not given a supply of Nets to sell.

NOTICE

- #1 THESE ARE NOT HAIR NETS.
(Hair nets do not have designs).
- #2 WE DO NOT SELL HAIR NETS HERE.
- #3 HAIR NETS MAY BE OBTAINED BY AMBLING NORTHWARD TWO AISLES. THE COUNTER MAY BE RECOGNIZED BY THE HUMAN SCALPS HANGING ABOUT.
